

Primary Categories
Significant Community Problems/Concerns
Terre Haute, Indiana DMA

Crime - The issue of crime and achieving a safer environment with regard to ones personal safety, home safety, work environment and travels remains one of our communities priorities and concerns. Also included, issues of substance abuse.

Education - Recent community ascertainments have identified numerous education related topics as issues of substantial and on-going concern within the Terre Haute DMA. High school drop-out rates, funding and physical facilities, grade point indexes, percentage of high school students going onto college, and continuing adult education and re-training to preserve a "qualified workforce" pool of employable workers.

The Economy/Jobs Growth - This encompasses many varied areas of interest and concern. From the basic needs of families to maintain or attain a particular standard of living to issues more related to community/business economic issues such as business expansion, new industries, availability of jobs and existing tax rates.

Public Safety & Health - This category is one that overlaps other areas, but that is identified as a stand alone issue as well by residents in the Wabash Valley. This includes the very personal concerns of individuals relevant to their personal health, safety, work and environment. With sub-issues such as social safety, continuing safe education programs and overall comfort levels at home, work, and play.

Government/Legislative Issues - Most of our public is effected either directly or indirectly by two state governments (Illinois and Indiana) and many different city of local governmental agencies and policies. (Laws, taxes, regulations, elections, police and fire protection to name only a few).

Social Services - This particular area involves the support structure within the community to provide many different types of social services for people in all economic groupings.

Minority Representation - A community issue that addresses efforts to assure that the minority composition within our community has equal and fair representation in all areas of living and working within the community, as reflected by the community at large.

Community Appearance - This category involves the efforts made by city & county officials & organizations to create a cleaner, healthier, and more attractive environment. Deals with efforts at removal & control of litter, efforts to remove offensive odors from the air (a real problem in Vigo County) and overall efforts to create a more positive attitude about the physical world in which we live.

Transportation - This particular area concerns the efforts to improve transportation around the city. It might include efforts to update our city bus service, installation of traffic lights or stop signs to make intersections safer, remodeling of streets around the city, etc...

Development of Business Friendly Environment - This would include all efforts by community leaders & citizens to sell our city & surrounding area to interested corporations/businesses. Activities of the Greater Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce, efforts by the Terre Haute City council to offer Tax abatements, and any other activities that would make our area more appealing to prospective businesses would be included here.

General Information - This category is listed in order to include efforts on behalf of WTHI-TV that address a very specific circumstance which may not be appropriate in a proceeding listing, but one which we believe reflects community awareness or concern or opportunity that may be prevalent in a particular place or time but not necessarily on an on-going basis.

CBS Television Network - The CBS Television Network provides affiliates quarterly with a listing of issues/concerns that have been addressed during that quarter by the Network.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

01/01/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Right Or Wrong" - Susan Wright, a 27-year-old stay-at-home mother from Houston, Texas stabbed her husband, Jeff, 193 times. She claims she was a victim of domestic abuse and that on Jan. 13, 2003, her husband attacked her with a knife and she fought back in self-defense. Prosecutors charged that she was a cold blooded killer who lured her husband to bed with the promise of sex, tied him up and then brutally murdered him. They questioned why it took Susan five days to report the crime; why she buried Jeff's body in the backyard; and why she tried to clean up evidence of the death. A jury found Susan Wright guilty of murder and sentenced her to 25 years in prison. Includes interviews with: Susan's sister, Cindy Stewart; the victim's father, Ron Wright and his brother, Ron Wright Jr.; prosecutor Kelly Seigler; and attorneys for the defense Neal Davis and Richard "Racehorse" Haynes. Segment titles: "Buried Secrets"; "Night Of Terror"; "Family Portrait"; "Disorder In Court"; "Final Secret" (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Marc Goldbaum, Paul LaRosa, Jenna Jackson) (Sr. P: "Right Or Wrong?": Katie Boyle) (OAD: 04/24/04 - includes an update to the first rebroadcast (07/23/05), which itself included an update.)

01/05/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Death Without Mercy" - On November 29, 2005, firemen put out a fire in a house in Morgantown, West Virginia -- and discovered in a bedroom the charred remains of Jimmy Michael, who lived there with his second wife Shelly, a registered nurse. A medical examiner's report found that Jimmy was dead before the blaze had even started, and that he had been injected with a lethal dose of a drug called rocuronium, used in hospital procedures when doctors need to temporarily paralyze muscles. Police investigation led to the arrest of Shelly Michael for the murder of her husband. At her trial, the jury found her guilty of first degree murder, but included a recommendation of mercy. She will be eligible for parole in 2027. Among those interviewed are: Shelly Michael; Paul Mezzanotte, Morgantown police detective; Stephanie Estel, first wife of Jimmy Michael; Dennis and Ruth Michael, parents of Jimmy Michael (C: Susan Spencer - P: Tim Gorin)

- 01/19/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets of Palm Beach" - a report about the murder of Linda Fishman, a wealthy widow found murdered in her Florida home. The childless woman had always been known for her generosity and at first it was suspected that her nephew was responsible for the crime. As the investigation continued, police learned that there was no shortage of men in the life of Linda Fishman -- a financially strapped nephew, a former lover, a registered sex offender. Police were stymied, until an anonymous letter made them aware of Frederick Kretzmer, a man with whom Linda had had a relationship. After their breakup he joined the Navy, served time in prison, then resurfaced and he looked up an old girlfriend, Gissele Ospina. It was she who wrote the anonymous letter giving detectives their break. Kretzmer gave a full confession in open court and was sentenced to 20 years in prison. Included are interviews with Fishman's nephew, Michael Jamrock; Police Officers Eric Keith, Tim McCabe, Richard Loundsbury, Kenneth Buss; prosecutor Angela Miller; Kretzmer's former roommate Mario Segura; former girlfriend Gissele Ospina. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux)
- 01/22/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "In Too Deep" - An account of the investigation into the August 2005 murder and mutilation of 21-year-old Jennifer Cave in Austin, Texas, in the apartment of her friend Colton Pitonyak. Pitonyak was tried for the murder, found guilty and sentenced to 55 years. Laura Hall, Pitonyak's girlfriend, admitted that she had gone to his apartment, at his request, right after the murder -- but claims that she did not know that she was going to be confronted there with a dead body in the bathtub. She then -- out of fear for her own life, she says -- drove Pitonyak, at his insistence, to Mexico. After their arrest in Mexico, Hall was interrogated, charged with hindering the apprehension of Pitonyak. In his testimony at his own trial, Pitonyak implied that Hall took part in the dismemberment of Jennifer Cave's body after her death. The prosecution afterwards came up with witnesses who said that Laura told them that she was involved in the dismemberment. Put on trial for that, and for helping Pitonyak escape, she was found guilty and sentenced to five years in prison. She is appealing her conviction. Includes interviews with: Laura Hall; Sharon and Jim Cave, Jennifer's parents; Bill Bishop, Travis County prosecutor; Loren and Carol Hall, Laura's parents; Joe James Sawyer, Laura Hall's attorney (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Jenna Jackson)
- 01/26/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Lost in Paradise" (9:00-10:00p) - on October 14, 1976, Deborah Gardner, a young Peace Corps worker from Tacoma, Washington, was murdered while on assignment in the South Pacific island nation of Tonga. Dennis Priven, a 24-year-old fellow Peace Corps worker from Brooklyn, N.Y., who appeared to be obsessed with Gardner, was charged by Tongan police. At his trial, Priven faced death by hanging if found guilty. His attorney argued that he was a paranoid schizophrenic and was therefore not guilty by reason of insanity. A Tongan jury agreed, but with no Tongan facilities available to treat Priven, Peace Corps officials and State Department officials arranged for him to be returned to the U.S., where they promised he would be admitted to a psychiatric institution. Having returned to the U.S., the Peace Corps learned that they had no legal authority over Priven. A psychiatrist who examined Priven said that the murder was committed during a psychotic episode and that he was no longer a threat to anyone. With that diagnosis, Priven was free and returned to Brooklyn. Includes an interview with Philip Weiss, author of "American Taboo" and with other Peace Corps volunteers.(C: Susan Spencer - P: Lisa Freed) No individual segment titles are used in this episode. (OAD: 10/23/04 as "American Taboo"; rebroadcast on 06/18/05 as "Lost In Paradise")

- 01/26/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Fight For The Truth" (10:00-11:00p) - a followup to "Prime Suspect" (OAD: 04/07/04, updated 03/12/05 and 07/15/06), a report on Marty Tankleff, who as a 17-year-old, was convicted of murdering his adoptive parents Seymour and Arlene Tankleff in their Bell Terre, Long Island home. Marty initially confessed, but quickly recanted. He has fought for years for his innocence, especially as new witnesses have surfaced who could potentially exonerate him. On December 19, 2007, 17 years after Marty went to prison, the Court overturned his conviction and he was released, pending a new trial. Just six days after his release, the Suffolk County D.A. announced he intended to drop all charges and it was announced the prosecution against Mary Tankleff was over. Marty's celebration is tempered by the fact that New York's governor has asked for a special prosecutor to investigate the case; in the meantime, he is a free man, about to start college. Included are interviews with several key witnesses in the case: James McCready, the lead detective; Assistant District Attorney Leonard Lato; Tankleff's investigator Jay Salpeter, who took the case on a pro bono basis; and Richard Ofshe, an expert in interrogation tactics who believes in Tankleff's innocence. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman)
- 01/29/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Trigger Point" - In May 2004, Jenny Eisenman, an elementary school teacher and mother from Houston, Texas, shot and killed her estranged husband Drew in her apartment. She claimed that she had suffered abuse at the hands of her husband for years and that the shooting was in self-defense. However, based on her erratic behavior and her own confession just hours after the crime had occurred, prosecutors believed that Jenny was a woman scorned and had shot her husband out of anger. Prosecutors questioned why immediately after she had shot Drew, she went shopping at Wal-Mart, where she purchased several suspicious items; why she cleaned and made repairs to her apartment before police arrived; why Drew's body was placed in a storage bin and dragged outside; and why hours went by before she dialed 911. Based on testimony and the fact that her defense attorney never called an expert in domestic violence, Jenny was found guilty of murder and sentenced to 23 years in prison. After the trial, Correspondent Richard Schlesinger met with seven members of the jury, who stated that had they been permitted to hear testimony regarding her life with Drew, it may have affected the outcome. Among those interviewed are: Detectives Larry Davis and Mark Reynolds; Mia Magness, assistant district attorney in Harris County, Texas; Ron Watson, Jenny and Drew's friend who claimed that Drew confessed to abusing Jenny; Shelby Moore, a law professor and expert in domestic violence; Vonda and Jim Harvey, Jenny's parents; and Drew's parents, Tom and Becky Eisenman. - 02/24/08 "The Prosecution Of Governor Siegelman" - a report on Don Siegelman, former governor of Alabama and the most successful Democrat in that Republican state. While he was governor, the U.S. Department of Justice launched multiple investigations, and he was eventually convicted of bribery. He is currently incarcerated at a federal prison camp in Louisiana. Critics of the case, both Democrats and Republicans, believe that the investigations were politically motivated. Those interviewed include attorney Doug Jones; Jill Simpson, a Republican lawyer from Alabama; and Grant Woods, former attorney general of Arizona. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Gelber, Joel Bach)
- "The Murder Of Chauncey Bailey" - a report on the 2007 murder of Oakland Post Editor Chauncey Bailey, while he was investigating rumored criminal activity tied to Your Black Muslim Bakery. Police believe that Bailey was gunned down to keep that story out of print. Those interviewed include Assistant Police Chief Howard Jordan; reporter Chris Thompson; Saleem Bey, Bailey's informant; and accused gunman Devaughndre Broussard. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Michael Rosenbaum)
- "What's Wrong with the Bees?" - an interview with David Hackenberg, a beekeeper from Lewisburg Pennsylvania, who is widely credited with discovering the phenomenon named by scientists as colony collapse disorder. Because honeybees help to produce a third of the foods we eat, the mysterious disorder could have severe consequences. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 02/02/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Ghosts Of El Segundo" (9:00-10:00p) - in July 1957 Richard Phillips and Milton Curtis, two young police officers on a routine stop in the Los Angeles, CA suburb of El Segundo, were gunned down by a man who, unknown to the police, had just committed robbery and rape at a nearby lover's lane. With only a fingerprint and the belief that one of the officer's bullets hit the killer, investigators searched for more than 45 years for the man who murdered two of their own. Important clues, including the gun used in the murders, were uncovered but almost 3,000 suspects were checked, all leading to dead ends. Two things helped police to crack the case: a call in 2002 from a woman who identified her uncle as the murderer and the use of forensic technology unavailable at the time of the crimes. Finally, investigators were able to track down the killer -- Gerald Mason -- an unsuspecting 69-year-old family man living in Columbia, S.C. Having pled guilty to murder, Mason was sentenced to prison and will be eligible for parole in 2017. Includes an interview with Darren R. Levine, Deputy District Attorney of Los Angeles County as well as other officers who were involved in the case.(C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Josh Gelman - Sr. P: Al Briganti) No individual segment titles are used in this episode. (OAD: 10/02/04 - includes a brief updated graphic on screen to the first rebroadcast (07/05/05), which itself included a brief updated graphic on screen)
- 02/02/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "No Way Out" (10:00-11:00p) - In August 2005, after Hurricane Katrina had passed over southeastern Louisiana, many people thought the region had been spared from the most severe damage. But the worst was yet to come: on Monday, August 29th, the region's protective levees started to fail, and entire communities were overwhelmed by floodwater. In St. Bernard Parish, just southeast of New Orleans, thousands had evacuated the region, but others had stayed behind to shelter in place, including the residents, staff, and operators of St. Rita's Nursing Home, Sal and Mabel Mangano. The Mangano's and their staff saved 24 of the residents and got them to safety, but the wall of water and its aftermath left 35 of the residents dead. But when the bodies were discovered at the nursing home, no one thought of the Manganos as heroes. Having been evacuated to Texas, Sal and Mabel returned to Louisiana, where they were each arrested and charged with 35 counts of negligent homicide and 24 counts of cruelty to the infirm. Prosecutors claimed that the Manganos had no intention of evacuating, based on the inadequate evacuation plan on file with the state; the fact that the other three nursing homes in the parish had made the decision to evacuate; that the parish government adequately stressed the importance of evacuation; that telephone calls made by parish officials to the Manganos went unheeded; and that the Manganos turned down an offer of buses to help evacuate their residents. At the trial, several family members of the deceased testified that the Manganos had told them they would evacuate the nursing home before Hurricane Katrina struck - something both Sal and Mabel deny. The defense strategy was to make the trial about the government failures that led to the flooding of St. Bernard Parish -- and it was successful: they were both found not guilty on 118 counts. Among those interviewed are: Sal and Mabel Mangano; Joe and Cheryl Gallodoro, whose father T.J. died at St. Rita's; St. Bernard Parish clerk Polly Boudreaux; St. Bernard Parish coroner Dr. Bryan Bertucci; prosecutors Julie Cullen and Paul Knight; and defense attorney Jim Cobb. 02/09/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Where's Our Baby?" (9:00-10:00p) - in November 1997, Marlene and Steve Aisenberg, a Tampa, Florida couple, reported their five-month-old daughter Sabrina missing from her crib. The police began to search for the baby, but soon the investigation began to focus on the parents as authorities became convinced that they knew more about their baby's disappearance than they admitted. Sheriff's detectives planted secret recording devices in the Aisenberg's home. After listening to and recording thousands of hours of conversations, the federal government brought an indictment against the couple, charging them with conspiracy and lying to investigators: charges which, if proven true, could send the Aisenbergs to prison for 30 years. Eventually, a pair of judges reviewed the case and the charges against the Aisenbergs were dropped. The couple still believe that Sabrina will be found alive and returned to them. Includes interviews with Bill McGinty, reporter for WTSP, the CBS affiliate in Tampa; Graham Brink, a reporter for the St. Petersburg Times; and Barry Cohen, the Aisenbergs' attorney. (C: Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul LaRosa, Taigi Smith) No individual segment titles were used in the episode. (OAD: 01/15/05)

02/09/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Who Killed the Beauty Queen?" (10:00-11:00p) - On December 15, 2005, 19-year-old college student and aspiring beauty queen Nona Dirksmeyer was found murdered inside her Russellville, Arkansas apartment. Nona's boyfriend Kevin Jones said he had been trying to reach her numerous times by phone but that his calls and messages had gone unanswered. Eventually, he and his mother decided to stop by Nona's apartment, where they discovered Nona's body. Police determined that she had been murdered, beaten to death with the heavy metal base of a floor lamp and left in her blood-spattered living room. Investigators questioned Kevin and he agreed to take a polygraph, which he failed. That, along with Kevin's palm print in Nona's blood on the murder weapon, kept the investigation focused on Kevin. Police believed that he flew into a murderous rage when he discovered a condom wrapper on her kitchen counter. After police questioned and cleared Nona's other sexual partners, Kevin became their only suspect. At the trial, prosecutors based their case on the blood evidence found on the light bulb. However, the texture of the blood was crucial to the case and police described it as being tacky. That description supported the defense claim that the print was left when Nona's body was discovered and was still sticky when police arrived at the crime scene. The jury agreed and Kevin Jones was found not guilty. Recently, Kevin's defense team found a match to the DNA found on the condom wrapper and a special prosecutor has been appointed to look into the case. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Rage On The Run" (9:00-10:00p) - bodybuilder David Bieber of Ft. Myers, Florida starting using steroids in high school and as an adult began selling them to support his expensive career. He went into business with fellow bodybuilder Markus Mueller, a German who was able to smuggle the drugs into the U.S. from Europe. Bieber had an affair with Mueller's girlfriend, Danielle LaBelle, and subsequently married her. In February 1995, Bieber drove LaBelle to Mueller's home to retrieve her purse while he waited in the car. When LaBelle found Mueller dead in the doorway she suspected that Bieber had killed him. Two men admitted to police that Bieber had hired them to kill Mueller, but before he could be arrested, Bieber disappeared. He bought the birth certificate of a deceased child, Nathan Wayne Coleman, took on his identity and, in 1996, fled to Leeds, England where he was undiscovered for almost eight years. On December 26, 2003, Leeds police apprehended a stolen car; the driver was Bieber. In the process of being handcuffed, he opened fire on the three unarmed arresting officers and escaped. One officer died of his wounds and a nationwide manhunt was launched. Bieber was finally caught, was tried for the murder of the police officer, and sentenced to life in prison. Danielle LaBelle divorced Bieber in 2003. There are no plans to try him for the murder of Markus Mueller. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Addicted To Love" (10:00-11:00p) - When police arrived at the Franklin, Tennessee apartment of Lesa Buchanan on the Fourth of July weekend in 2005, they were surprised by what they found in her home: a cache of prescription drugs and sex toys. Lesa and her boyfriend, Dr. Christ Koulis, had spent most of that final weekend in her bedroom, having sex. Koulis, a plastic surgeon, had called 911 when she stopped breathing, and said he performed CPR, but that there was no pulse. When Lesa was rushed to the emergency room, the doctors trying to save her life said Dr. Koulis told them nothing about the drugs she had been using -- information that could have been crucial in saving her life. With Lesa dead, investigators quickly focused on drugs. At her apartment, detectives discovered used syringes with traces of oxycodone -- a powerful narcotic used to kill pain and available only from a prescribing physician. After a five month investigation, Dr. Koulis was arrested on four charges -- ranging from simple assault to second degree murder. At the trial, prosecutors alleged Dr. Koulis had injected Lesa with oxycodone during the course of the weekend, which eventually led to her death. But the defense claimed Lesa injected herself, and that she had a drug problem - a claim her family and investigators disputed. Ultimately, Dr. Koulis was found guilty of criminally negligent homicide. He will likely remain free until 2009, pending his appeal. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ira Sutow, Taigi Smith)

02/23/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Beyond the Boardwalk" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the deaths of four women: Tracy Ann Roberts, Kim Raffo, Barbara Briedor, and Molly Jean Dilts, all suspected prostitutes and/or drug addicts. They were all found on November 20, 2006, in a ditch, facing east, without their shoes on, near the Golden Key Motel on the outskirts of Atlantic City, NJ. Police suspect a serial killer but clues in the case have led to little information. As of now, no one has been arrested or charged in the homicides. A person of interest, Terry Oleson, a handyman who lived at the motel and worked odd jobs to pay the rent, has been arrested for an unrelated offense - videotaping a minor in the nude with a hidden camera. His house has been searched and he has now been asked to provide DNA samples. (C: Harold Dow - P: Miguel Sancho) (OAD: 05/19/07 - includes an update.)

02/23/08 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The McGuire Diaries" (10:00-11:00p) - Melanie McGuire, on trial for the murder of her husband Bill, was provided by 48 HOURS MYSTERY with a video camera, so that she could record her intimate thoughts as she stood trial. Excerpts of her video diary are interspersed throughout the broadcast. In May of 2004, his dismembered body was found in three suitcases in Chesapeake Bay. He had been shot with a .38 caliber gun. Melanie claimed that Bill had vanished weeks before, after an argument. She had never filed a missing person's report and without having heard from Bill, she later filed for divorce. She claimed that he had been abusive and suggested that his disappearance and murder were the result of his gambling problem and that his frequent trips to Atlantic City had put him in contact with shady characters. However, a blanket wrapped around Bill's torso was the same kind of blanket used at the fertility clinic where Melanie worked as a nurse, making her a suspect. After extensive searches, police were unable to find a murder weapon or tool used to cut up Bill's body, and there was no evidence of a crime scene. Soon afterwards, police learned that Melanie had purchased a Taurus .38 special revolver just 48 hours before Bill had disappeared. Melanie, however, claimed that she had purchased that gun for Bill at his own request. She claimed he wanted it for his own protection, but couldn't buy it himself because of a felony conviction. Believing her to be guilty, Prosecutor Patti Prezioso intensified her investigation and had Melanie put under surveillance. This soon revealed two of Melanie's secrets -- she had been carrying on an affair for more than two years with her boss, Dr. Brad Miller, and she had been in Atlantic City the night after she claimed Bill had left her. She later stated that she had gone to Atlantic City in search of Bill, had found his car and moved it out of spite. Thirteen months after the suitcases were found, Melanie McGuire was arrested for the murder of her husband. Nine months after her arrest, the trial began. After seven weeks and more than seventy witnesses, Melanie McGuire was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. She will be eligible for parole in 2073, when she would be 100 years old.
